

Appendix Table 9. Included Studies: Children Age 4 to 8 Years and Booster Seat Use, Continued*

Study, Year (Reference)	Intervention Format	Follow-Up Time Frame	Outcomes	Results	USPSTF Quality
Gittelman et al., 2006 (33)	To evaluate the effectiveness of booster seat education for families residing in lower-socioeconomic neighborhoods; ED Parent or child Individual; print, video, demonstration 1 session, 5 min Counseled on seat location: NR	1-mo post-ED visit	Behavioral outcomes: Self-reported booster seat use Health outcomes: NR Harms measure: NR	IG1: 8.7% IG2: 98.2% CG: 1.3% $P < 0.001$ (IG2 vs. IG1 and CG)	Fair to poor: Groups were similar at baseline for reported characteristics; however, high overall attrition (35%), differential attrition across groups, self-reported outcomes, analyzed completers only, and process measures were not reported

* CG = control group; ED = emergency department; IG = intervention group; NR = not reported; USPSTF = U.S. Preventive Services Task Force.